

FIREARM INJURY PREVENTION

State of the Science and the Potential of Nurse-Led Research

Agenda

Wednesday, November 9
10:00 - 10:15 am	Welcome and Introductions	Dr. Shannon Zenk, NINR
10:15 - 10:45 am	Nursing Science & Reducing the Impact of Firearm Injury: A Match for the NINR Strategic Plan	Therese S. Richmond, PhD, RN, FAAN University of Pennsylvania
10:45 am - 12:30 pm (with 15-minute break)	Developing and Testing Implementation Strategies with Partners to Promote Firearm Safety as a Universal Suicide Prevention Strategy in Pediatric Primary Care	Rinad S. Beidas, PhD Northwestern University
	Place Matters: Community Approaches to Violence Prevention	Katherine Theall, PhD Tulane University
	Preventing Re-injury	Nicholas Thomson, PhD, UKCP, CPC Virginia Commonwealth University
12:30 - 1:00 pm	PANEL moderated by Shalanda Bynum, PhD, MPH	Drs. Richmond, Beidas, Theall, Thomson
1:00 - 1:45 pm	Lunch
1:45 - 3:30 pm (with 15-minute break)	(T.R.I.G.G.E.R) Project: Community-Based Intervention for Firearm Injury Prevention	Tia Bell, MA The True Reasons I Grabbed the Gun Evolved from Risks (T.R.I.G.G.E.R) Project
	Population-Level Research for Prevention Across the Urban-Rural Continuum	Ali Rowhani-Rahbar, MD, MPH, PhD University of Washington
	Building Partnerships to Prevent Community Firearm Violence: Lessons Learned from Scraped Knees	Marc Zimmerman, PhD University of Michigan
3:30 - 4:00 pm	PANEL moderated by Dara Blachman-Demner, PhD	Drs. Rowhani-Rahbar and Zimmerman, Ms. Bell
4:00 pm - 4:20 pm	Novel, Community-Engaged Ideas to Curb Firearm Injury through Nursing Research	Bridgette Rice, PhD, MDiv, APRN Villanova University
Thursday, November 10
10:00 - 10:15 am	Welcome and Overview of NIH Research in Firearm Injury and Mortality Prevention	Christine Hunter, PhD (CAPT, USPHS) NIH Office of Behavioral and Social Sciences Research
10:15 am - 12:00 noon (with 15-minute break)	The Potential of Behavioral Economics and Implementation Science in Firearm Injury Prevention Research	Katelin Hoskins, PhD, MBE University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing
	Public Health Orientation to Firearm Injury Prevention	Patrick Carter, MD University of Michigan
	Racism and Firearm Injury Risk Among Asian Americans: Implications from Violence and Resilience Research	Hsing-Fang Hsieh, PhD, MPH University of Michigan
12:00 noon - 12:30 pm	PANEL moderated by Dara Blachman-Demner, PhD	Drs. Hoskins, Carter, Hsieh
12:30 - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 - 2:30 pm	Creating Peace: Adolescent Violence Prevention	Elizabeth Miller, MD, PhD, FSAHM Alana Fields, PhD University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine
	Firearm Violence Through a Socio-Structural Lens- Implications for Research and Prevention	Sara Jacoby, PhD, MPH, MSN University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing
	Integration of School Health Research and Firearm Injury Safety	Erin D. Maughan, PhD, RN, PHNA-BC, FNASN, FAAN George Mason University
2:30 - 3:00 pm	PANEL moderated by Rosa Gonzalez-Guarda, PhD, MPH, RN, CPH, FAAN	Drs. Jacoby, Maughan, Fields, and Campbell
3:00 - 3:15 pm	Break
3:15 - 3:45 pm	Nurse Researchers Belong in Firearm Research	Jacquelyn Campbell, PhD, RN Johns Hopkins University
3:45 - 4:00 pm	Wrap-Up & Next Steps	Dr. Shannon Zenk, NINR