

CALL FOR APPLICANTS

The Summer Genetics Institute (SGI), sponsored by the National Institute of Nursing Research (NINR), is a one month, intensive program of classroom and laboratory instruction in genetics that provides a foundation for biobehavioral research and clinical practice. The SGI is administered by the Foundation for Advanced Education in the Sciences (FAES) as one of the Bio-Trac programs.

The SGI is provided by NINR at no cost to program attendees. Attendees are responsible for housing, food, and transportation expenses incurred during program participation. The application period for NINR's 2014 SGI will open mid-November 2013 and close March 1, 2014. For further information, contact the SGI.
